there was nothing on it but a tiny golden key, and Alice's first idea was that this might belong to one of the doors of the hall; but, alas! either the locks were too large, or the key was too small, but at any rate it would not open any of them. However, on the second time round, she came upon a low curtain she had not noticed before, and behind it was a little door about fifteen inches high: she tried

ALICE'S ADVENTURES IN Lewis Carroll
THE MILLENNIUM FULCRUM

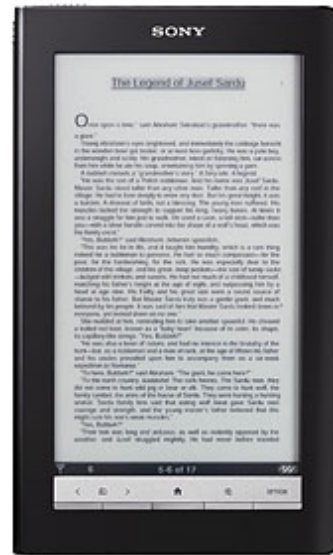

CHAPTER I. Down the Re

Alice was beginning to bank, and of having no book her sister was re it, 'and what is the v conversation?'

So she was considering hot day made her feel of making a daisy-chain would be when she crowd of getting up and picking the daisies, when suddenly a White Rabbit with pink eyes ran close by her.

There was nothing so VERY remarkable in that; nor did Alice think it so VERY much out of the way to hear the Rabbit say to itself, 'Oh dear!
Oh dear! I shall be late!' (when she thought it over afterwards, it occurred to her that she ought to have wondered at this, but at the time it all seemed quite natural); but when the Rabbit actually TOOK A WATCH OUT OF ITS WAISTCOAT-POCKET, and looked at it, and then hurried on, Alice started to her feet, for it flashed across her mind that she had never before seen a rabbit with either a waistcoat-pocket, or a watch to take out of it, and burning with curiosity, she ran across the field after it, and fortunately was just in time to see it pop down a large rabbit-hole under the hedge.

What to do?

ALA Task Force

During the 2009 ALA Annual Conference in Chicago, ALA Council approved a resolution that requested the ALA President, with advice of the ALA Executive Board, "to convene an ALA wide representative group: to continue to assess the proposed Google Book Search Settlement and its ongoing impact on ALA members and member institutions to make recommendations for action by the Association and its members."
